Dear Professor Manfredi,

I am pleased to inform you that the World Health Organization has designated the Centro Regionale Monitoraggio Parassitosi (CREMOPAR), Laboratory of Parasitology and Parasitic Diseases, Department of Veterinary Medicine and Animal Production, University of Napoli Federico II as a WHO Collaborating Centre for Diagnosis of Intestinal Helminths and Protozoa, under WHO's reference number ITA-116. As previously agreed, Professor Laura Rinaldi and Professor Giuseppe Cringoli will act as Heads of the Centre. Should there be any change in the future, please inform WHO without delay.

The agreed terms of reference and workplan of the Centre are attached. We wish to emphasize that institutions designated as WHO collaborating centres are expected to implement the agreed workplan in a timely manner and to the highest possible standard of quality. Any issue that may affect the implementation of the agreed workplan should be brought to the attention of the WHO responsible officer, Dr Antonio Montresor, email montresora@who.int. For information on administrative matters, please visit the WHO website: <http://www.who.int/collaboratingcentres/information/en/>.

We wish also to emphasize that institutions designated as WHO collaborating centres must comply with the attached Terms and conditions for WHO collaborating centres. Please note that the WHO name and emblem may only be used by a WHO Collaborating Centre as described in the terms and conditions. On the anniversary of the designation date, institutions designated as WHO collaborating centres must complete a short online progress report. Details will be sent to the email address of the Head of the Centre specified in designation form.

The designation as a WHO Collaborating Centre will be effective for a period of four years, as from 13 February 2020 and will automatically end on 13 February 2024 unless redesignation has been approved by WHO before that date. During the period of designation, either party may revoke the designation at any time by giving three months advance notice in writing.

I look forward to our successful collaboration.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Hans Henri P. Kluge
Regional Director
